Footnotes:

Bold denotes full-time student status.

[1] Resident tuition rates only apply to students who meet guidelines as established under Colorado Residency Statutes (23-7-101 Legislative Declaration).

[2] Includes $116 per credit hour enrolled for the COF stipends pursuant to C.R.S. 23-18-303.

[3] Student Share assuming eligible student has applied for, authorized the collection of, and receives the COF Stipend.

[4] Students could be required to pay additional mandatory fees besides semester fees. These can include, but are not limited to, course fees, student orientation fees, and student health insurance fees. Please refer to this academic year's Fees and Charges list.

[5] Resident undergraduate students who do not receive the COF stipend will pay the amount listed in this column PLUS $116 per credit hour.

The Colorado School of Mines Budget Committee annually recommends tuition and fee rates to the Mines President. The President then recommends the package of tuition, student fees, and other charges for the fiscal year commencing July 1, 2026, and ending June 30, 2027. Tuition rates are effective Fall Semester, 2026. These rates are subject to approval by the Mines Board of Trustees and are subject to change. (Board of Trustees Meeting: May 1, 2026).

REFUND POLICY

The amount of tuition and fee assessments is based primarily on each student's enrolled courses. In the event a student withdraws from a course or courses, assessments will be adjusted as follows:

If withdrawal from a course or courses is made prior to the end of the add/drop period for the term of enrollment, as determined by the Registrar, tuition and fees will be adjusted to the new course level without penalty.

If withdrawal from a course or courses is made after the add/drop period, regardless of whether or not the student officially withdraws from Mines, no adjustments in charges will be made.

Please note: students receiving federal financial aid under the Title IV programs may have a different refund as required by federal law or regulations.
