

8.2 EXAMINATIONS SCHEDULING AND DEAD DAY POLICIES

Final examinations are scheduled by the Registrar. With the exception of courses requiring a common time, all finals will be scheduled on the basis of the day and the hour the course is offered.

In general, all final examinations will be given only during the stated final examination period and are to appear on the Registrar's schedule. Faculty policy adopted in January 1976 provides that no exams may be given during the week preceding examinations week (dead week), with the possible exception of laboratory exams. The scheduling by an individual faculty member of a final exam during dead week is to be avoided because it tends to hinder the students' timely completion of other course work and interfere with the schedules of other instructors. Faculty members should not override this policy, even if the students in the class vote to do so.
