

Equities Research Associate, Metals & Mining – Toronto

About Canaccord Adams

Canaccord Adams is the capital markets subsidiary of Canaccord Capital Inc., a leading independent full service investment dealer in Canada with capital markets operations in the United Kingdom and the United States of America. Canaccord has operations in two of the principal segments of the securities industry: private client services and capital markets. Together, these operations offer a wide range of complementary investment products, brokerage services and investment banking services to Canaccord's private, institutional and corporate clients.

Summary

This role is an excellent opportunity to further exposure to a broad range of mining companies, commodities markets, and capital markets events. Focus commodities include base metals, iron ore, coal and fertilizers. As a Research Associate, you will assist in the ongoing valuation of mining companies, and the communication of our valuation ideas to our internal sales desk and to our institutional clients. This is a highly visible position requiring excellent communication skills and enough prior experience to contribute to the team from day one.

Responsibilities

- Assist in the analysis of mining companies and commodity markets;
- Build and maintain excel valuation models for individual mining companies, and comparable valuation and transaction models across commodity groups;
- Assist in the preparation of industry and company-specific reports;
- Prepare written comments on news events and company-specific valuation impacts;
- Assist in the preparation and maintenance of commodity market supply and demand models, as a tool for commodity price forecasting.

Skills & Qualifications

- Graduate business, economics or finance degree;
- Technical background in geology, engineering or metallurgy preferred;
- Commitment to undertake Level I of the CFA qualification;
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills;
- Excellent analytical / spreadsheet capabilities.

Qualified applicants are invited to submit a resume and cover letter. All applications will be held in strict confidence.

Please e-mail your application to gary.lampard@canaccordadams.com.

