

“But I don’t see color.”

- Have you ever heard or used this statement in conversation? If so, describe the context in which it was used.
 - Consider the intent (speaker)
 - Consider the impact (recipient)
- Discuss why this statement is problematic
- Brainstorm how you would respond

- Colorblindness
 - Perpetuates the idea that to notice or mention race must be racist
 - Sees white as the standard
 - Ignores the experiences and realities of people of color
 - Considers intent, not impact, as important
