

Colorado School of Mines – Department of Geophysics
Approval for Completion of GPGN581 Presentation Requirement

- Student may not schedule his/her thesis defense until this requirement is fulfilled.
- Student must obtain in advance, thesis advisor's approval to use requested presentation to fulfill requirement.
- Student must be enrolled in Geophysics Master of Science at the time of presentation.¹
- Student must maintain regular attendance at Heiland Lectures, throughout entire graduate program, unless prevented by a reasonable excuse.

- Include abstract, or other appropriate submission documentation, with this form.
- Submit form, signed by student and his/her thesis advisor, to Department for GAC and Department Head approval.

Student Name: _____ CWID: _____

Semester of Course Registration: _____

I have completed the GPGN581 individual requirement as described below:

Individual Oral or Poster Presentation at a professional meeting:
Name of Organization: _____
Meeting/Conference: _____
Location: _____ Date: _____
Presentation Title: _____

Type of Presentation: Oral Presentation Poster Presentation

Individual Oral or Poster Presentation at CSM Graduate Research and Discovery Symposium (GRADS)²:
Date: _____
Presentation Title: _____

Student

Advisor

GAC Chairman

Department Head

¹ Student may not use a talk or poster presentation given prior to start of his or her current graduate program. Graduate students pursuing dual MS/PhD degrees must fulfill requirement twice, once for GPGN581, and once for GPGN681.

² Fulfilling the requirement at GRADS is an option available only to MS students.