

BIASED LANGUAGE EXERCISES

Exercise 1: Identify the biased language in the following sentences, and then rewrite these examples so that they do not contain biased language.

Mankind is developing technology that can fight against climate change.

Each researcher designed his vision of what the drone should look like before sharing it with his team members.

It can sometimes be difficult to distinguish between man-made chemicals and natural chemicals.

Each chemical engineer on the project created his own synthetic material.

Exercise 2: Invent/write sentence in which nouns and pronouns agree in such a way they the language is unbiased.

Exercise 3: Go through a paper you have already written and change any potentially biased language that you may notice.

Answer Key

Exercise 1: Identify the biased language in the following sentences, and then rewrite these examples so that they do not contain biased language.

Humankind is developing technology that can fight against climate change.

Researchers designed their vision of what the drone should look like before sharing it with their team members.

It can sometimes be difficult to distinguish between human-made chemicals and natural chemicals.

Chemical engineers on the project created their own synthetic material.