12.0 DEFINITIONS

The terms defined in this section shall have the following meanings whenever they appear in these rules, unless the context in which they are used clearly requires a different meaning or a different definition is prescribed for a particular section or portion thereof.

Acceptable, with regard to a bid or proposal, means an offer submitted by any person in response to a solicitation issued by the University that is in compliance with the solicitation terms and conditions and within the requirements of the specifications described and required therein.

Adequate competition exists if a documented quote, competitive sealed bid or competitive sealed proposal has been conducted and at least two responsible and responsive offerors have independently competed to provide the University's needed goods or services. If the foregoing conditions are met, price competition shall be presumed to be "adequate" unless the purchasing agent determines, in writing, that such competition is not adequate.

Advantageous means an assessment of what is in the University's best interests.

An After-the-Fact ("ATF") purchase occurs when a department makes a purchase for more than $5,000 before the Office of Business Operations issues a purchase order or change order. For example, authorizing a vendor to begin work before the Office of Business Operations issues a purchase order or change order, even though the department has submitted a purchase requisition, is an ATF. Similarly, obtaining goods or services on credit and subsequently submitting the invoice with a payment voucher is an ATF unless it is a purchase specifically allowed to be paid by payment voucher as set forth on the voucher document.

Alternative means a choice of a different good or service that meets or exceeds the functional requirements of the base bid.

Award means the acceptance of a bid or proposal by issuance of a purchase order or change order and may include the execution of a written agreement to cover performance by the vendor.

Base Bid means the minimum functional requirements of the good or service.

Best value means the lowest overall cost to the University after taking into consideration costs, benefits, and savings.

Bid means a response from a vendor to an invitation for a bid (IFB).

Brand name specification means a specification limited to one or more goods or services by manufacturer’s names or catalogue numbers.

Brand name or equal specification means a specification that uses one or more Manufacturer’s names or catalogue numbers to describe the standard of quality, performance, and/or other characteristics needed to meet University requirements, and which provides for the submission of equivalent goods or services.
Business means any corporation, limited liability company, partnership, individual, sole proprietorship, joint-stock company, joint venture, or other private legal entity.

Change order means a document that sets out changes to a previously issued purchase order. A change order provides authorization to a vendor to add to or change the original order for goods or services, as well as, documents any change in the cost of goods or services.

Competitive negotiation means the process of discussion and issue resolution between a purchasing agent and a prospective vendor in order to arrange for the providing of a good or service needed by the University. If more than one vendor is available for such negotiation, the needs of the University must be clearly defined in advance of any negotiations, via a specification that details fully the University's intended procurement.

Competitive reverse auction means a computer aided bidding process through which a pre-established group of vendors may post bids for a defined period of time and may change their bids as desired during the bidding period.

Contract means any type of University agreement, regardless of what it may be called, for the procurement or disposal of goods or services, and includes purchase orders or change orders.

Contractor means any entity that has a contractual relationship with the University for the provision of goods or services as allowed for under these rules.

Construction means the process of building, altering, repairing, improving, or demolishing any public structure or building or any other public improvements of any kind to any public real property. For the purposes of this code, "construction" includes capital construction and controlled maintenance, as defined in C.R.S. § 24-30-1301.

Cost-reimbursement contract means a contract under which a contractor is reimbursed for costs that are allowable and allocable in accordance with the contract terms.

C.R.S. means Colorado Revised Statutes.

Determination means a written procurement decision made by the Risk Manager and Director, Business Operations, or his or her delegatee, which is based on sufficient facts, circumstances and reasoning to substantiate the decision. Each determination shall be filed in the appropriate Procurement Department file.

Documented quote ("DQ") means a process of soliciting informally for fulfilling the University's need for specific goods or services and receiving and evaluating vendor responses. The dollar limits for use of documented quotations shall be as stated in the section on small purchases and shall be conducted only by a purchasing agent.

Enhancement means components, services, or products that exceed the minimum functional requirements and would improve the quality of the goods or services being procured by the University.
Field purchase orders ("FPO") Pre-printed purchase orders not to exceed $1,000.00 that may be obtained from Shipping and Receiving.

Good means all property, whether tangible or intangible, provided by a contractor. The term does not include land, the purchase of an interest in land, water or mineral rights, workers’ compensation insurance, or benefit insurance for University employees.
