RE: Designation of Title IX Coordinator and Deputy Title IX Coordinators

Mines is committed to providing a campus community free from gender-based discrimination. Mines complies with all applicable state and federal statutes, including Title IX of the federal Higher Education Amendment of 1972 (“Title IX”). Title IX prohibits sex-based discrimination in any education program or activity, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, and stalking. Mines students and employees who have concerns about sex-based discrimination are encouraged to seek assistance from me or one of the Mines Deputy Title IX coordinators listed below.

This system allows for the expeditious coordination and investigation of Title IX concerns. It is an integral part of fulfilling Mines’ commitment to provide a positive learning and working environment for the entire community. Title IX Coordinator and Deputy Title IX Coordinator duties include:

- Receiving complaints of sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, and stalking from students, employees, visitors, vendors, or guests;
- Explaining Mines policies and procedures to Complainants and Respondents, including the administrative review process and confidentiality;
- Providing Complainants and Respondents with information about on and off campus resources;
- Identifying and implementing support measures when appropriate;

TITLE IX OFFICE
COLORADO SCHOOL OF MINES

- Assisting Complainants alleging criminal acts in making a report to an appropriate law enforcement agency; and
- Serving as a Title IX policy resource for members of the campus community.
