Non-Degree Course Combination

Students who have attended the Colorado School of Mines as non-degree seeking students, and later are accepted into a degree-seeking program have the option of combining the non-degree coursework with their degree-seeking coursework.

If you are interested in combining your non-degree coursework with your degree-seeking coursework, please contact the Registrar's Office at registrar@mines.edu for assistance with undergraduate degree programs or the Graduate Studies Office Non-Degree Information page for assistance with graduate degree programs.
