NOVEMBER ORG OF THE MONTH

Mines Climbing Team

Mines Climbing is a new organization dedicated to competitive rock climbing. They are not only a SAIL organization, but a collegiate team recognized by USA Climbing. They compete in both bouldering and lead climbing competitions against other universities, such as CU Boulder and CSU. They train together multiple times a week as well as acting as ambassadors of the climbing community through volunteering at local climbing events and competitions. They are so excited to be a part of the campus community this year and continue to foster our passion for competition and climbing. SAIL is excited to recognize them this month!

Philanthropy Tank

Application is live for Philanthropy Tank on November 29th, with $10,000 up for grabs. This Shark Tank-style event encourages students and clubs/orgs to pitch their ideas for improving the Mines campus and community. Each group has to submit an application and a pitch video. Finalists are then picked to participate in the Live Q&A session to present their idea, state their case of why they should win, and answer questions from our judges. Submit your ideas to improve Mines before the 11/14 deadline. More info here!
