The following options are available for students reporting sexual harassment, sexual assault, and interpersonal violence (dating and domestic violence, stalking).

RESOLUTION OPTIONS

REPORT TO PUBLIC SAFETY
Information reported to Mines PD will be shared with the Title IX Office. Information reported to Golden PD or other jurisdictions may or may not be shared with Mines.

REPORT TO TITLE IX COORDINATOR (TIXC) OR DEPUTY TIXC
- Supportive measures provided.
- Initial analysis of circumstances and reporting party’s preferences for resolution.
- No contact directive may be issued.

FORMAL TITLE IX GRIEVANCE
- Investigation conducted by external investigator with Complainant, Respondent, and witnesses.
- Live hearing with support for Complainant and Respondent.
- Could result in disciplinary sanctions against Respondent.

ALTERNATE RESOLUTION
- Restorative process based on repairing harm and rebuilding trust.
- Trained facilitators lead conference or circle.
- Not a disciplinary process.
- Participation is voluntary and either party can request to end at any time.

RESOLUTION THROUGH DEAN OF STUDENTS OFFICE
TIXC may refer case to the Dean of Students Office if the Complainant elects a resolution process, and the conduct does not meet the requirements for resolution under Title IX Policies and Procedures.
- Informal resolution process (for non-violent conduct).
- Alternate resolution process.
- Formal resolution process which may result in disciplinary or educational sanctions against Respondent.

NON-CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCES
Information shared will be reported to the Title IX Coordinator for review. (eg. Faculty, Residence Life, Mines PD).

CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCES
Information shared will not result in a report or investigation.
- On Campus: Title IX Confidential Resources, Counseling Center licensed professionals, Student Health professionals.
- Off Campus: The Blue Bench, RAINN, Victim Outreach Incorporated.

NO RESOLUTION PROCESS SELECTED
- Academic, safety, and wellness supportive measures are available to the impacted party regardless of choosing to go through a resolution process.
- Impacted party may request a resolution process at any point.
- Title IX Coordinator may initiate a formal grievance process at any point.

---

REPORT A SITUATION/INCIDENT
Student has the option to report to either or both.

GET ASSISTANCE AND SPEAK TO SOMEONE BEFORE REPORTING

To access the full text of procedures and resources visit: www.mines.edu/Title-IX.