Note: The Mines Title IX Office will make an initial determination regarding jurisdiction, including whether the alleged conduct is prohibited under the Policy Prohibiting Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, and Interpersonal Violence. If jurisdiction does not exist, the alleged conduct cannot be resolved under this Policy, but may be prohibited under other institutional policies.

I, ________________________________ (print), am requesting Mines investigate the allegation(s) set forth above. I agree I:

___ have received a copy of the Mines Policy Prohibiting Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, and Interpersonal Violence and a copy of the Procedure to Resolve Complaints of Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, and Interpersonal Violence.
I have received a copy of Mines Rights and Options document.

I understand the Formal Grievance Process involves an investigation conducted by a fair and unbiased investigator retained by Mines, as well as a live hearing in which I have to answer questions (cross examination) by an advisor of the Respondent’s choosing, which can be, but does not have to be, an attorney.

I understand it is my right to participate or decline to participate in the hearing. However, if I do not participate fully in cross examination, no evidence (real, representative, or testimonial) I provided, including evidence gathered during the investigation, can be used to make a determination of responsibility.

I understand there is an Alternate Resolution option available and that if I am interested in exploring that option, I need to indicate my interest to the Title IX Coordinator. The Respondent must also agree to voluntarily participate for Mines to move forward with that option. Additionally, if either Party determines the Alternate Resolution process does not meet their needs before the conclusion of the process, the process will revert back to the Formal Grievance Process.

I understand I may request Supportive Measures whether or not I decide to file this Formal Complaint, or participate in an Alternate Resolution Process or Formal Grievance Process.
