Whereas, an examination by the best accountants of the books of E. E. Moody, late register of the State School of Mines, shows the said Moody on the face of his books indebted on account of the student fund, in the sum of $10,450.59, and

Whereas, part of said sum of $10,450.59 was $1,500 received by said Moody from Professor A. R. Curtis and which appears to have been used for school purposes, and

Whereas, it appears to the board that said Moody, during a period of several years, paid back to students, or deposits made by students for apparatus drawn from store-room, the sum of $3,906.51, for which said Moody was not credited, and

Whereas, during a period of nine years the said Moody paid out for the legitimate expenses of the School of Mines Athletic Association the sum of $6,544.08, also not credited, therefore

Be it resolved, That to balance the following entries, to balance the books of said Moody, he and we hereby authorized:

E. E. Moody to	$ 1,500.00	Cr.
A. R. Curtis		1,500.00
Student Account Book to	3,906.51
E. E. Moody		3,906.51
Athletic Expenses to	6,544.08
E. E. Moody		6,544.08

Resolved that a payment of not less than $25 per month in addition to his regular salary, be made to Professor J.R. Curtis, until the sum of $1,500, credited in these proceedings, be paid off.

Resolved that the Register of the State School of Mines be authorized to treat the above entries as of date November 30, 1900. No word of the last fiscal year.

On the above preamble and resolutions the roll was:

Types: Bursley, Smith, Paul and Berthoud.

Absent: Mr. S. Stratton.

The following was adopted by unanimous vote:

Resolved that certain checks turned in by Registrar Moody March 8, 1900, and July 12, 1900, for $3,434.36 and $1,097.73 respectively, be and the same are hereby cancelled on the record of the Secretary, because of the proceedings recorded above.
